Thankful for our Thanksgiving Luncheon! Thanks so much to our marvelous parents and Mrs. Clark or putting on an extraordinary Thanksgiving Luncheon on Friday! Our Pre-K through 5th grade students, pre-K parents, teachers, and administrative team all thought it was scrumptious. Mega-BRAVOS to all who volunteered!

Mrs. Gavin, Mrs. York, Mrs. Cruz, Mrs. Keys, and Mrs. Schroden were among the creative cooks who helped out!

Welcome to our Instructional Team! We are thankful that we have hired our new Kindergarten aide. Her name is Mrs. Megan Jenkins and she is a Blessed Sacrament mom and graduate of Blessed Sacrament School!

Alivia says, "Hi, Mrs. Jenkins!"
Living Rosary has been Rescheduled from December 7, 2018 to a date to be determined in School Review: "Blessed Sacrament is a fantastic school!"

Great for our kids. We don't want to leave once our student is finished with 5th grade!

We LOVE a Parade: Our Blessed Sacrament School Family participated in the Santa Parade on Saturday. We had 26 kiddos and 18 parents march with us! All had a fantastic time. Videos are posted on Blessed Sacrament Parent Facebook page! Looking forward to next year's parade! Some photo highlights:

Even Pope Francis was part of our parade team!

We passed out over 200 information flyers about our terrific school at the parade too!

Kyle, Grace, Mason, Ellie, and Kendall say, "Hurray for Blessed Sacrament!"

Caroling with Kindness : Our students will be visiting a senior living facility to sing Christmas Carols for the residents! More details to follow and thanks to Mrs. Max – and the student council – for planning this heartwarming activity!

✠ "HAVE A BLESSED WEEK!"
